City of Salisbury to Temporarily Close W. Fisher Street for Repaving

Salisbury_North Carolina_November 8 – The City of Salisbury Street Division will temporarily close the 100 block W. Fisher Street for street repaving on Monday, November 12 and Tuesday, November 13.

During the course of repaving, this section of roadway will be closed to through traffic and alternate travel routes should be sought. On-street parking is also prohibited during this timeframe. Work is expected to be complete late Tuesday evening, at which point travel lanes will reopen and normal traffic patterns will resume.

Repaving is being coordinated by the Street Division and will take place, weather permitting. Inquiries may be directed to Street Division Manager, Craig Powers at (704) 638-5251.
