

LIST OF PLUMBERS AND CERTIFIED BACKFLOW TESTERS

The following list of persons and businesses is based solely on information provided to Salisbury-Rowan Utilities ("SRU") by others. SRU has not conducted any investigation into or obtained any confirmation from any source of the accuracy or completeness of the list or of the quality, cost, or any other characteristic of goods or services that might be provided by any person or business that appears in the list. The inclusion in the list of a person or business is not a recommendation by SRU or by any other person or entity. SRU makes no representation regarding any person or entity or the performance of any person or entity on the list and accepts no responsibility for the performance of any person or business whose name appears on the list. Use of the list is solely at the risk of the user. Before hiring any listed person or business to provide goods or services to you, you should investigate and obtain the information that is important to you in making such a decision.
